COMMUNITY EDUCATION PROGRAMS

Heritage Society Lectures

1:30 p.m., Sunday, Aug. 20: Fred Norton: Marblehead World War I Pilot & Hero with David Glick (Chautauqua Hall)

Fred Norton (1893-1918) may well be the most outstanding person to have graduated from Lakeside-Danbury High School according to David Glick, despite the fact that he lived only 25 years. Based on his years of research, Glick will highlight what is known about Norton's youth on the Marblehead Peninsula, his athletic accomplishments at Ohio State University and his service with the U.S. Army as a pilot with the 27th Aero Squadron. At the conclusion of this week, when Lakeside's education seminars have explored various topics about World War I, this Heritage Society program will remember a local Marblehead man who made the ultimate sacrifice.

Glick has spent parts of the past 87 summers in Lakeside. A prolific collector of Lakeside history in oral, printed and photographed formats, he has donated his multiple collections to the Lakeside Heritage Society Archives. Glick has presented Sunday programs and led walking tours for many years and served as author/editor for the Heritage Society's quarterly MANIFEST, describing historical facets of the peninsula from 1991-2013.

1:30 p.m., Sunday, Aug. 27: Growing "Old" in Lakeside: Still Active at Age 85 Years Plus! with Panel of Year-Round Lakeside Senior Residents (Chautauqua Hall)

Three long-time Lakesiders will share their thoughts about growing "old" in Lakeside, including how the entertainment, spiritual, educational and recreational programs have evolved and changes in the overall Lakeside "vibe" – sense of community, cottages and landscape.

Bert Lahm, 88, is a retired architect who purchased 644 Walnut Ave. in 1980. After 32 summers here, he and wife Evelyn moved from North Carolina to become year-round residents in 2012.

Earl Mencil, 90, purchased 614 East Second St. in 1976, enjoying almost 30 summers there with his wife, Marian, until her death. Mencil has been a valued worker at Lakeside's shuffleboard courts, even after he moved to Otterbein North Shore in 2015.

Marilyn Strickler, 85, started coming to Lakeside with her husband in 1955. She has enjoyed summers at her Kenton Row, yellow Gothic cottage, once owned by her parents, for more than 25 years.

Guided Tree Walks

10:30 a.m., Monday, Aug. 21 & Aug. 28: Guided Tree Walk (Meet at the Pavilion)

Lakeside Chautauqua has been designated as a Tree City USA community for the sixth year. This award is for communities with a variety of trees who are working to maintain and improve their forest. Lakeside has more than 100 varieties of trees, and on this walk, participants will learn about 25 of them. The walks are coordinated by the Lakeside Environmental Stewardship Society (LESS) and led by volunteers Bill Dudrow, Bill Smith, Mary Bishop and Frank O'Dell.

Religious Life Workshop

1:30 p.m., Monday, Aug. 21 & Tuesday, Aug. 22: Dietrich Bonhoeffer: A Faithful Witness for Our Age with the Rev. Bob Machovec (Fountain Inn Aigler Room)

Dietrich Bonhoeffer, a German pastor and theologian, was imprisoned and eventually murdered for his faith. As the Nazi regime was building, Bonhoeffer founded the Confessing Church, which stood in opposition to the ideology, the hatred and bigotry of Nazi Germany. Since his execution in 1945, Bonhoeffer has become one of the most widely read and inspirational thinkers of the modern era. The ideals that he lived and died for, continue to speak to us and our seeking to be faithful in our day.

The Rev. Bob Machovec retired in 2016 after 35 years as an East Ohio Conference United Methodist pastor. He currently works as a Chaplain for Caring Hospice Services in Independence, Ohio. The Rev. Machovec is the former Executive Director of Loudon Volunteer Caregivers in Leesburg, Va. He is a member of the American Association of Professional Chaplains and the American Association of Christian Counselors. He earned his bachelor's degree in religion and philosophy from the University of Mount Union and his Master of Divinity in pastoral care from Vanderbilt Divinity School. The Rev. Machovec has been visiting Lakeside for more than 40 years and is assisting with Dockside Worship this season.

Solar Eclipse

1:30-3:30 p.m., Monday, Aug. 21: Solar Eclipse (Dock)

A solar eclipse will be at its maximum at approximately 2:30 p.m. on this day. Two solar telescopes with appropriate viewing lenses will be set up for those interested in viewing this event at its different stages.

Lakeside Women's Club Program

1:30 p.m., Tuesday, Aug. 22: The Inside Story: Hoover Auditorium with Shirley Stary (Lakeside Women's Club Green Gables)

Join Shirley Stary, Senior Vice President of Programming, as she shares the "ins and outs" of programming and operating Hoover Auditorium.

Stary is in her 13th season at Lakeside. Prior to that, she served at the Assistant Dean/Director of Student Activities at Ashland University. She earned her bachelor's degree in theater from Ashland University and her master's degree in arts administration from the University of Akron.

Guided Bird Walks

8 a.m., Wednesday, Aug. 23 & Aug. 30: Guided Bird Walk (Meet at Meadow Brook Marsh)

The Marblehead Peninsula is home to many species of birds and is on a migratory path, making it an ideal spot for bird watching. Bring binoculars, sighting scopes and manuals to Meadow Brook Marsh, 8577 E. Bayshore Rd. All ages welcome. Walks are coordinated by the Lakeside Environmental Stewardship Society. For more information, contact (330) 224-5019.

Herb Study

8:30 a.m., Wednesday, Aug. 23: End of Season Coffee with Jan Hilty (Train Station)

Gather for the last meeting of the season to share gardening successes and failures, as well as herbal recipes and discuss future ideas for programs.

Jan Hilty is the founder and coordinator of the Herb Study, and has been teaching the Herb Study classes since its inception. She is a member of Herb Society of America and currently affiliated with the Delaware Unit of the Herb Society of America.

Historic Walking Tours of Central Lakeside

10:30 a.m., Wednesday, Aug. 23 & Aug. 30: Historic Walking Tour of Central Lakeside (Meet at Heritage Hall Museum)

This tour, led by Lakeside Heritage Society volunteers, highlights cottages and buildings in the area from Sycamore to Central Avenues and the lakefront to Fifth Street.

Special Workshop

10:30 a.m., Friday, Aug. 25: Sweet & Savory Desserts with Chef Stacy Maple; pre-registration & $5 fee required (Chautauqua Hall)

Join Chef Stacy Maple as she demonstrates how to make sweet and savory desserts that will both confuse and delight your taste buds. Samples for tasting will be part of this workshop.

Maple is the Executive Chef of Bistro 163, a pay-it-forward restaurant in Port Clinton. She studied at the prestigious Le Cordon Bleu College of Culinary Arts, graduating Phi Beta Kappa and also studied food styling at the French Culinary Institute in New York City. Maple has had varied entrepreneurial experiences, ranging from a bed & breakfast to a coffeehouse and a slow-food café, as well as her work as a culinary consultant.

To register and pay for this workshop, visit www.lakesideohio.com/education/special-workshops and click on the registration link. The same online system used to register for Rhein Center classes is being used for workshop registration, so the same account can be used for both. Interested participants without a Rhein Center account can easily create one by visiting the website above and clicking on the "Create an Account" link under registration directions. To register in person, visit the Rhein Center at the corner of Sixth Street and Walnut Avenue.

Registration will close when the maximum capacity for the workshop is reached or at 5 p.m. the day before the class, whichever comes first. Contact the Education Department at (419) 798-4461, ext. 239 with questions.

Historic Chautauqua Movement Seminars

3:30 p.m., Wednesday Aug. 23 & Aug. 30: Historic Chautauqua Movement Seminar with Gretchen Curtis (Fountain Inn Aigler Room)

This seminar reviews the founding of the Chautauqua Movement by Rev. J. H. Vincent and Lewis Miller in the 1870s-1880s in western New York and how the Movement spread throughout the U.S., leading to the development of approximately 300 independent Chautauquas by 1900. The seminar also highlights the early history of Lakeside and its connections with the Vincent Family. The rich heritage of Chautauqua Institution (New York) and Lakeside (Ohio) continues in these two largest remaining Chautauqua communities in the United States. Eight other surviving Chautauquas from Maine to Colorado are highlighted.

Gretchen Curtis, a Lakeside summer resident since 2005, recently retired after several years as Director of Operations for the Lakeside Heritage Society. She has visited five other independent Chautauquas in recent years.

Get Growing! Gardening Programs

8:30 a.m., Thursday Aug. 24: Preserving Herbs Demonstration with Debby Geisheimer (Pavilion East Deck)

Cooking and seasoning with your own herbs throughout the year is a joy. This program will provide an overview of various methods to preserve herbs, such as harvesting procedures, drying, freezing and blending herbal vinegars. In addition, ideas to make pestos, jellies, herb salts and butters will also be shared.

Debby Geisheimer is a Lakeside resident and Master Gardener. She is also a member of the Lakeside Herb Study and volunteers in maintaining Lakeside gardens.

8:30 a.m., Thursday, Aug. 31: Hydrangea Pruning Demystified (Walk & Talk) with Loretta Wilken (Meet at Pavilion East Deck)

Beautiful hydrangeas abound in Lakeside. Learn tips on how to help your plants bloom profusely and be the star of your gardens. Deadheading and pruning demonstrations will be given on different varieties of hydrangeas. Informative handouts will also be available.

Special Historic Walking Tour

10:30 a.m., Friday, Aug. 25: Historic Business District with Dakota Harkins; pre-registration required at Heritage Hall Museum by 4 p.m.

Thursday; cost is $5/person; limited to 15 participants (Fountain Inn Lobby on Maple Avenue)

This tour, coordinated by the Lakeside Heritage Society, identifies the early 1875-1950 structures in the Lakeside business district that evolved to meet the needs of travelers who might stay a week or a month, as well as the residents who were building year-round homes. What were the earliest businesses, where were they located and what did they sell to the developing Lakeside community? A few of the earliest business buildings are still in place and those buildings that were torn down may be viewed in photos.

Foreign Affairs Forums

3 p.m., Friday, Aug. 25 & Sept. 1: Foreign Affairs Forum moderated by Jeff Dieterich (Chautauqua Hall)

This forum is designed to facilitate a free exchange of information and opinions on international events and their impact on the U.S., as well as the effect of domestic events on the rest of the world. Participants also have the opportunity to discuss future options for the U.S. foreign policy. As moderator, Jeff Dieterich brings his knowledge of foreign affairs to the forum based on his 35-year career with the U.S. government.

Tree Tram Tour

1:30 p.m., Monday, Aug. 28: Tram Tree Tour with Bill Dudrow & Frank O'Dell; pre-registration required (Meet in front of Hotel Lakeside)

One of the assets that make Lakeside beautiful is its 100 different species of trees. Bill Dudrow and Frank O'Dell, of the Lakeside Environmental Stewardship Society, will lead this tram tour to view and study approximately 35 different trees. The tour is free of charge, but pre-registration is required at the Lakeside Chautauqua Administration Office, as seating is limited.
