Liability: All efforts will be made to handle the artwork with care. All work submitted is subject to the following waiver of liability: Lakeside Chautauqua and their agents will not be held responsible for loss or damage to artwork for the duration of the exhibit. All artwork submitted is subject to this condition, and your agreement with these terms is assumed upon submission of artwork.

Artwork Pick Up Information:

- Unsold entries must be picked up at Hoover Auditorium between 2-4 p.m. Sunday, July 29
- The artist will be called before pick up time if all their artwork is sold
- No artwork will be released without the artist’s receipt
- Lakeside Chautauqua’s responsibility for the artwork ends at 4 p.m. Sunday, July 29
- Note: no post-show storage is available, and Lakeside does not ship artwork

Wiring the Artwork:

- All artwork must be wired properly and securely to be accepted for hanging in the show
- Pop-out cardboard hanging hoops and saw tooth hangers are not acceptable
- Lakeside Chautauqua reserves the right to reject any artwork that is not properly prepared for hanging
- How to hang artwork:
  - Use only D-ring or eyehooks; place them as shown on the red horizontal lines
  - Use braided picture hanging wire that is heavy enough to support the artwork. Hardware can be obtained at craft stores, hardware stores, etc.
  - Loop the hanging wire through each hook twice, leaving a 2-3” tail. Wrap the tail around the long end of the wire like a braid. Use electrical tape to cover the wire ends so that the installers do not prick themselves on the sharp ends
  - The hanging wire should be long enough so that its peak will be 1-2” from the top center of the frame
  - Note: There will be a $25 charge per artwork that requires the installers to wire it for hanging. No artwork will be hung if it is not properly wired

Judge: Bridgette Turner
