Colin & Brad “Scared Scriptless” Comedy
To open Lakeside Chautauqua’s 145th anniversary season, Colin Mochrie and Brad Sherwood return to the Hoover Auditorium stage for an unforgettable evening of comedy at 8:15 p.m. Saturday, June 16.
These two stars of the original Emmy-nominated TV show “Whose Line Is It Anyway?” will entertain and provide interactive improvisation in a performance titled “Scared Scriptless.”
Their amazing, PG-rated family show includes variations on many of the games showcased on “Whose Line Is It Anyway?,” including “Sound FX” and “One Word Expert.”
Mochrie and Sherwood remind audiences at the beginning of each show that the scenes that make up the act are entirely unscripted.
Throughout the evening, the show becomes truly interactive as audience members are called to the stage to participate in the fun.
“Whose Line Is It Anyway?” was an updated take on the popular British improvisational comedy show.

Wellness Center Grand Opening
On May 26, the Lakeside community gathered together to celebrate the grand opening of the Wellness Center at the Great Lakes Aquatics & Wellness Campus.
This has been a long-awaited project. After the community, the Rev. Dr. Ned Dewire, Lakeside’s Director of Religious Life & Church Outreach, welcomed the crowd and thanked all who have been involved in this project.
Step back in time and relive the history of Lakeside, with a backdrop of a historical timeline that showcases the construction of the historic building and all those who generously donated to these projects, as well as the Maintenance and Grounds Crews and all who will use it to enhance their quality of life.

Community-wide enhancements
Caring for our beautiful grounds and historic buildings is a top priority for Lakeside, as these set the scene for our Chautauqua program each summer.
Since the fall, we’ve continued our ongoing enhancements and began new ones. These upgrades and renovations involve all around the Lakeside campus and will significantly improve the Lakeside experience for all. We’d like to thank all the Lakesiders who have contributed to these efforts, as well as the Maintenance and Grounds Crews and community members who have been working hard or rain or shine to complete these enhancements.
A pickleball court was introduced to pickleball six years ago when we first located the first pickleball court in Central Park. Since then, interest and demand for a dedicated pickleball space has steadily grown. Last year, pickleball enthusiasts presented the idea of building a pickleball center near the William Trapp Campus. After a task force was formed to investigate, funds were raised and a plan was made. At the November 2017 Board meeting, it was approved that eight pickleball courts could be built. Construction began in December, and we anticipate that the courts will open by mid-summer.

Chautauqua Lecture Series

Art Show remembers Neil Glaser

The Lakeside Art Show display will be injured in the distance from Tuesday, July 3-3, 2018, Thursday, July 26 in the lobby of Hoover Auditorium.

In addition to showcasing the talent of local artists, this year’s show will feature a special retrospective of Neil Glaser, a renowned Lakeside who recently passed away. In memory of this local artist, contributions are honored this year’s show at the Lakeside Art Show.

Glaser worked for nearly two decades on the show. He would spend hours helping to organize and run each show. He was also a strong proponent for children’s artwork. Recognizing that little hearts and hands are capable of great things, he understood that impact and art can have on a child’s life.

He also taught for many years at the C. Kirk Rice, Jr. Center for the Living Arts, typically a two-day week class, which he created in his post-work. His paintings were known for their clear design and emphasis on the color and shadow in the environment. His subjects ranged from the misty Okanagan landscapes to the rugged coast of Maine and the back country of Florida.

Glaser enjoyed devoting his time between Sanibel Island, Fl., and a frequent exhibitor and award winner in the annual Lakeside Art show. His work has reached several galleries in private, public and corporate collections.

Lakeside Art Show admissions will be judged by Bridgette Turner. She is the owner of the GALLERY on Columbus. She is past President and current board member of the Ohio Plein Air Society and a member of the Oil Painters of America and the American Impressionist Society. In addition to being a professional artist, she has served as juror for both state and local art shows.

Tours will award First, Second and Third Place, as well as Honorable Mention in both adult and youth divisions.

Guests to the Art Show can note for the People’s Choice Award, the winner of which will be announced during the final week of the show.

Lakeside staff members will be the recipient of the Edward J. Werden Lakeside Award, which will be given to the price that the Lakeside Art Show, the nameake of his award, directed and won the annual Lakeside Art Exhibit (1956-1999).

4) Chautauqua Pass fees are more valuable than the price you pay if you even notice everything it offers – Lakeside really has a lot to offer. Gather up a group of 10 people who all spent their day at Lakeside, listen to what they did, and then they’ll be back asking for more. It may seem pricey at first, but the opportunities for growth, entertainment and development are a real treat. Find out everything that comes with your Chautauqua Pass at www.lakesidedohio.com/passport/details.

5) Parking is limited – The Lakeside grounds are old – 145 years old. That means the streets here weren’t built to handle cars, so leave parking lots to the professionals. Instead, guests are able to take a short shuttle ride from the Welcome Center down to downtown Lakeside. As a result, a car is not one way to accommodate for their size.

6) Rent a cottage – There are many cottages to enjoy at a Stay at Lakeside, and renting a cottage is a common way to spend a week, a month or even all summer. Many Lakesiders love the homeliness it offers for longer stays, along with the ability to cook meals and spend time with the whole family.

7) Bring an umbrella – This is a great tip. Odds are good that cars will have to be left outside the grounds (see tip 5), so a lot of time will be spent walking or biking. Unfortunately, the weather here isn’t always predictable. The lake sometimes comes from the sky and doesn’t just stay in the lake.

8) Be ready to walk a lot – Like any seasoned Lakesider, it’s difficult to maneuver a car along the old, narrow streets and avenues of Lakeside, so walking will probably be the most used form of transportation. Don’t forget to wear comfortable shoes and bring a water bottle.

9) Bike – Lake-side is packed with beautiful things to see, especially for those that love checking out houses and architecture, so a bike is one of the best ways to get around and enjoy the weather at the same time. Bring along a bike or rent one from Syleep’s Cycles & Rental Center, 182 Sycamore AVE.

10) Change your pace & slow down – Lakeside isn’t meant to be a rush. It’s a place to rejuvenate and where time shouldn’t be a worry, and neither should anything else. Except for when you get food and ice cream. These should be at the top of any Lakesider’s list of priorities.

11) Get involved – To this day, I’m still discovering different activities or groups to get involved in. Find a Lakesider (the official newspaper of Lakeside Chautauqua), or click around on the website to find a list. I read and found everything from the Chautauqua Literary & Scientific Circle to the Grey’s Club and the Shuffleball Club.

12) Talk to strangers – A staple of Lakeside, this is how many lifelong friendships blossoms. Don’t be afraid to chat with others that you meet at the pool or a lecture. Odds are good that they’ll give you pointers like these.

13) Jump off the dock – A sort of rite of passage at Lakeside, this is one activity even the most timid of us will do. The dock is how many lifelong friendships blossoms. Don’t be afraid to chat with others that you meet at the pool or a lecture. Odds are good that they’ll give you pointers like these.

14) Eat Patio donuts – This is a great tip! Odds are good that families will have to be left outside the grounds (see tip 5), so a lot of time will be spent walking or biking. Unfortunately, the lake sometimes comes from the sky and doesn’t just stay in the lake.

15) Go to a Farmers’ Market – Our community is lucky to have access to local produce and farmers. Every Tuesday and Friday from 9 a.m.-1 p.m., area farmers set up shop along Walnut Avenue and bring their fresh goods to the community.

16) Mayflies don’t bite – These crunchy little flies buzz on mass onto our slice of the peninsula and stick themselves just about anywhere. They’re easy to spot, but no need to worry – they buzz, but they don’t bite. If it helps, they’re actually an indication that the lake is healthy. The more mayflies we see, the healthier the lake is.

17) Let your kids explore & have freedom – Lakeside is renowned for kids that play in its streets and parks. The community is a special place that gives kids the chance to safely explore and play on their own.

18) Read a Lakesider – The official newspaper of Lakeside Chautauqua, all the information you need can be found online along with stories, interviews and more. Check it out online, or pick up a copy at the Administration Office, Fountain Inn, Hotel Lakeside or any business.

19) Go to the Farmers’ Market – Our community is lucky to have access to local produce and farmers. Every Tuesday and Friday from 9 a.m.-1 p.m., area farmers set up shop along Walnut Avenue and bring their fresh goods to the community.

20) Commit to one sunrise and one sunset. – Some sort of rite of passage, going to the dock and watching the sun dip over the edge of the earth is extraordinary. This spot is unique because it’s one of the few places the sunrise and sunset are visible at Lakeside.

Riverside Chautauqua’s Fourth of July celebration begins at 10 a.m. with The Children’s Bike Parade departing from Perry Park. Participants of all ages should arrive early with an enthusiastic spirit and an equipment or register for recreational events. It is open from 10 a.m.-6 p.m. Monday-Friday and 9 a.m.-1 p.m. Saturday. The Administration Office, 236 Walnut Ave., is a great resource for new and seasoned Lakesiders alike. It’s open from 8 a.m.-5 p.m. Monday-Friday and 9 a.m.-1 p.m. Saturday.

Welcome! For 145 years, historic Lakeside has welcomed families to take part in a summer experience dedicated to nurturing mind, body and spirit through programs focusing on the themes and stories of faith and freedom. The performance will include great spirituals, hymns and patriotic music culminating in a final concert at 7:30 p.m. July 28. The country a cappella stars, who have made their name on number one standards and country-dipped pop hits, will perform at Lakeside as part of their "THEMES" worldwide tour. For the 2018 season, patrons of the Lakeside Symphony Orchestra (LSO) and Chautauqua’s Composers’ Project will enjoy a unique experience. The LSO will be under the leadership of Lakesider John Gordon Ross during a year of transition. Ross will conduct two of this summer’s seven concerts, and the others will be led by guest conductors, each of whom have impressive credentials and a depth of experience. Five of the guest conductors are being considered for the newly opened Music Director and Conductor position, and Lakesiders will be able to give feedback following each concert. The LSO residency runs from Wednesday, July 25-Tuesday, Aug. 3.

Debating on Wednesday, June 20 with comediennes David Cone, is our New Family Entertainment Series. Tim Hawkins, an in-demand family-friendly comic known for his witty song parodies and poignantly honest reflections on parenthood, will share his story and talents with Lakesiders on Saturday, July 27. His obituary of life’s daily ridiculousness and hilarity will entertain the entire family.

With the exception of sharing the stage with stars such as Karryn Hoernig, Aromintin and Tom Petty, Black Violin will perform virtual visits with hip-hop influences to create a distinctive and multi-genre sound that is often described as “classical boom.” Hear their unaccompanied mix of jazz, hip-hop and pop when this duo performs in Hoover on Friday, June 29.

After 40 years in business and around the world, the Miracles still attract enthusiastic audiences around the world. They will give an unforgettable concert on Saturday, July 14.

Multiple Dove and Grammy- Award winning duo Point of Grace sing her single “Blessings” and “I Think of You.” Lake City Church will perform the inspiring message of trust in God on Friday, July 20 by writing compelling, emotionally rich songs and sharing her vulnerabilities with the world. Story has inspired millions.

Revival of the Pet Parade

Lakesiders and their pets will take place from 2:30-4 p.m. Sunday, July 1. The parade will begin at the Central Park basketball court, pass by the shuffleboard courts, cross the bridge, walk along Second Street and Kanton Row, and end at the Steeple Memorial Bandstand.

From there, Lakeside’s finest will perform their favorite tricks and show off their fanciest costumes. Awards will be given to:

Biggest Pet Small Pet Best Lakeside Spirit Bushido Tail Fluffiest Cutest collar/harness Best Trick Judges Choice

Several years’ grand marshal will be Lucy, a spaniel terrier dog escorted by Jody Geyer. Lucy and Jody enjoy spending their time visiting residents at Otisville North Shore Senior Lifestyle Community, as well as visiting the Marleah Library.

The Humane Society of Ottawa County and Island Safe Harbor Animal Sanctuary will be participating in this parade this year. The Humane Society will be available to answer your questions about how you can adopt a pet or support the local shelter. Island Safe Harbor Animal Sanctuary’s Dee Kramer, will be joining us along with her service dog.

Lakesiders
Meet the Teen Center Leaders

Leslie Dicy
Marketing & Graphic Design Manager

As the Teen Center enters its third year of operation, two new leaders are preparing for another great year.

Molly McConnell, of Wilmington, N.C., is pursuing a degree in English and History at East Carolina University. After completing her associate’s degree at Cape Fear Community College, she’s using the experience of working with teens this summer to prepare for her future as a high school teacher.

“I’m so excited to work with the age group that I’ll eventually be teaching,” she said. “It’s important that I learn how to effectively interact with the teens and how to earn their respect while also being friendly.”

Naomi Hutchison, of Canton, is working towards a degree in youth ministry at Indiana Wesleyan University. She is also excited to use this summer as a learning opportunity for a future career.

“It’s so vital that I learn how to plan and work with groups of teenagers,” said Hutchison. “Aside from that, I really enjoy meeting new students and learning about their lives. I’m hoping for a lot of opportunities like this that summer.”

Both McConnell and Hutchison are familiar with Lakeside, as they have both spent many summers here. McConnell has been coming here since she was 12 years old, and Hutchison has been coming here since she was born to visit with close family friends who own a home in Lakeside.

“The experience of working in Lakeside has been great,” said McConnell. “Working here is a lot different than just vacationing here, but I’ve met so many amazing people that have supported me and it’s made for a great experience so far!”

This year, both leaders are excited about welcoming new faces into the Teen Center, as they realize it can be an awkward situation when you first arrive.

“Every week, we’ll have a Monday Mixer, where kids who have just arrived for the week can come meet some of the kids who have been here all summer,” said McConnell. “Sometimes it can be hard to walk into a new environment where other kids already know each other, so we’re hoping this will be a good way to alleviate that.”

“We’ll really try to get out and about and meet students to invite them back into the Teen Center,” said Hutchison. “Whether it’s for a big event or just to hang out and have a snack, we want people to come check it out and make the most of it.”

Q&A with the staff

Q: What is the one thing on your bucket list? Molly: I really want to go skydiving. I like thrills and I’m very spontaneous and so I’d love to jump out of an airplane.

Molly: Take an IVY trip across the country and see the country’s national parks at last. I’d love to do it for a honeymoon, but I’ll have to find a husband who will do that with me first!

McConnell: Sometimes it can be hard to walk into a new environment where other kids already know each other, so we’re hoping this will be a good way to alleviate that.

There are many expressions of religion, and one's faith journey is not is both personal and social holiness. Martin Luther once said, "Next to the Word of God, music is the greatest treasure in the world." Music has the ability to give lives meaning in different ways. The theme is "This Land We Love," which will feature the festival choirs, prayers and reflections, and performances by world-class musicians as Lakeside favorites. When it comes to views on religion and faith, music has the ability to give lives meaning in different ways. Martin Luther once said, "Next to the Word of God, music is the greatest treasure in the world." Music gives us solitude for those quite ourselves, music is an extension of our prayer. Whether we are at a concert, in a service or by God, music is the greatest treasure in the world."

During the Sunday morning Hoover Worship services, the Chautauqua Chorus, organist Dez Dz Ges and special guest instrumentalists and vocalists join together to present special musical offerings of varying styles and messages. Unique to this year is that some Sundays have been designated as Lakeside favorites C. Andrew Blosser and Amy Bradley Temple with Chip Richter.

We understand that Music on all levels is important to enhancing one’s spiritual journey and look forward to celebrating this blessing with you throughout the summer.

Emily Keener is an 18-year-old singer/songwriter from Wakeman, Ohio. Since her exciting 2016 journey into the Top 12 on NBC’s “The Voice,” Keener has been writing and recording diligently in an effort to capture the energy and sustain the momentum of that transformative year. She started playing the guitar when she was 11 years old and began writing songs when she was about 12. A natural curiosity and passion for music quickly had her experimenting with her artistry. At age 12, Keener arrived home with a newfound sense of self as she walked directly from the plane into the studio to begin recording her debut album. She has performed songs ranging from soulful ballads to Americana that showcase her powerful voice and songwriting talent. Keener’s songs are distinctly original, and the ideas she manages to express in them show a soul that seems to be much older than a teenager. Before training with renowned vocal coach Joan Ellison and master guitarist Tony Schaffer, Keener was entirely self-taught and has the honor of performing songs by Joni Mitchell, “Still Crazy After All These Years” by Paul Simon (keyboards). After being named the first woman to win the American Idol singer/songwriter award from Clinton, Keener was nominated for Best New Artist at the 2017 American Country Awards. Family Night in the Park: Upriver Music
6 p.m., Sunday, June 17
Steelie Memorial Bandstand/Gazebo

Upriver Music plays a mixture of traditional and original folk music in the Celtic and Appalachian traditions. Musicians Dan Moorefield and Teresa Morrison blend their vibrant sound with stories and legends to deepen the audience’s understanding of these rich musical heritages.

An evening with Upriver will take you on a journey that brings American history into focus through an alternate lens, opening eyes to the promise and hardship that brought a quarter of a million Scots-Irish out of British slavery in their homeland to freedom in the New World.

Upriver is proud to present the music of these immigrants and their descendants, songs of joy, struggle and hard work that have been passed along in the old oral tradition of true folk music. These are honest songs, written by the people who lived them. Moorefield (guitar, piano, fiddle and vocals) has musical roots that go back to the County Waterford in Ireland. He mixes his knowledge of Irish history, the people and their music with his life experiences as a farmer, school teacher, father and businessmen to bring both musical diversity and education to people of all ages.

Morrison (Irish whistle, autoharp, mandolin, guitar and vocals) infuses her multi-instrumental talents with her Scottish and Irish heritage. Through her travels, she feels a soulful connection with the music that spans continents, mountain ranges and generations. In addition to performing, Morrison also teaches music at the Wayne Center for the Arts in Wooster.

Keener’s songs are distinctly original, and the ideas she manages to express in them show a soul that seems to be much older than a teenager. Before training with renowned vocal coach Joan Ellison and master guitarist Tony Schaffer, Keener was entirely self-taught and has the honor of performing songs by Joni Mitchell, “Still Crazy After All These Years” by Paul Simon (keyboards). After being named the first woman to win the American Idol singer/songwriter award from Clinton, Keener was nominated for Best New Artist at the 2017 American Country Awards. In 2018, she released her latest album, “What Makes You Beautiful,” which has been called warm, pleasant, and smart. In 2017, she received a singer/songwriter award from The American Association for the Advancement of Music, a quarterly music journal.

Now, she’s preparing to unveil her latest work and prove that she’s just getting started on her musical journey. Performing with Keener will be Seth Bain (bass), Dan Fernandez (percussion) and Eli Hanley (keyboards).
Family Entertainment Series: Ventriloquist David Crone

David Crone as part of our new Family Entertainment Series. These special shows, held on select Wednesdays throughout the summer, are geared especially toward families and begin at 7:30 p.m.

A Columbia native, Crone has been making people laugh for more than 30 years with his unique blend of comedy, ventriloquist and magic. It has performed on stages from Washington D.C. to Las Vegas and for companies from AOL to Zippo.

As a corporate executive, Crone knew what it was like to sit through too many meetings with “a bunch of dummies.” So, he left the confines of the career office for a rugged life on the road to form his own company, I’m No Dummy Productions, where he gets to call all the shots and pull all the strings. He offers entertainment for a variety of venues and audiences, ranging from corporate leadership retreats and educational seminars, to fun-filled banquets and shows. Always clean and hilarious, Crone and his cast of characters leaves audiences laughing and talking about the show long after he exits the stage. Everything he does is driven by his personal mission statement: “Making the world a better place, one laugh at a time.”

An increasing number of companies are offering matching gift programs for both employees and retirees. Each company varies in policy, as well as by their percentage of a match.

Utilizing a matching gift is a significant and easy way to maximize the impact of your generosity to Lakeview Chautauqua. If you work for one of the companies that generously match employee donations to nonprofits in which you are interested, do not miss this opportunity to double the value of your donation. Ask your employer for a Matching Gift Form that you can fill out and return to them to include it from there.

"Wellness and health permeates our society," said Bill Drackett, Lakeview Chautauqua Foundation Chair. "The community saw the need for this aspect at Lakeview. We’ve never had a swimming pool of this nature, and we’ve never had a combined center for fitness and wellness. This facility really brings it all together and creates a tremendous synergy."

With the opening of this building, Lakeview looks forward to guests and residents alike having new opportunities to incorporate health and wellness into their daily routines.

The community assessment was so quick and is currently to help build a new facility, and how much families love Lakeview. People can still use the lake, the pool is due to change or be updated, and our family zachariah comes.

On May 27, a celebration and prayer service was held to recognize the generous gifts that provided the new entryway to the Memorial Garden at Chautauqua Park, as well as to remember the loved ones who have laid to rest in the garden. Lakeview would like to especially recognize a donor whose gift in memory provided the new entryway to the Memorial Garden. This donor was the late Elise E. Rieder. Rieder had been a Lakeview member for nearly a century, when coming she was 13 years old and her family had just moved to the area. By 1910 she passed away of the age 108. She had a peaceful career in music education, publishing more than 550 articles, songs and stories, which have been featured in over 150 publications and translated to multiple languages. Rieder’s passion for music and education made her fall in love with Lakeside; she enjoyed the outdoors and visiting as much as she could until the last century, first coming when she was 13 years old.

The couple also enjoys giving to the arts and the children. From the approachable atmosphere, to the quaint Fourth of July celebrations, the Mocklers appreciate that Lakeview has not only to live in Lakeside, but to give financial support as well.

Additionally, the Mocklers opinion on supporting Lakeview were re-affirmed after they listened to the Master Plan.

“I like that we’re not just thinking in the moment,” Cindy said. “We’re thinking about so that we can favor another 140-year legacy.”

From the results, one of our priorities is the Grindley Aquatic & Wellness Center. We’ve put an emphasis to younger people, but also further our mission,” said Tim. “We’re ensuring the future of Lakeview, while creating a dynamic for the present.”

Their next door neighbor steps out of his house, whistling, and upon seeing them, grins and adds his line into a buoyant wave. He retrieves a small towel and continues whistling as he tends to his garden. A little girl with blonde hair toes by on a pink bicycle, training wheels freed off, and one of the spaniels lets out a small bark.

“Being here reminds me of when I was a kid,” said Tim. He pauses briefly and smiles as child’s laughter trickles in through the window with the noonday sun.

“Just makes you feel good.”

Pickleball grows in Lakeside Pickleball has become a popular sport in Lakeside in recent years. A permanent pickleball center is set to open in the Lakeside mid-summer, but enhanced pickleball programming is now offered this summer at the Williams Tennis Campus. Equipment for pickleball is available for anyone to check out at the Williams Tennis Center. The equipment includes wood paddles, and plastic balls (compatible to whittle balls). Pickleball is a sport that is easy to learn and attracts players of all ages. It does not require much skill nor does it cause wear and tear on muscles or joints.
Each week brings new instructors and innovative class offerings in the areas of drawing, painting, crafts, ceramics, dance, fiber arts, glass, and writing. Registering, and more. Classes vary in skill level, length and number of sessions. See drawing and writing prompts, called ARTageous Pages, are available for pick-up on the Rhein Center porch Monday-Saturday.

The Rhein Center is always looking for additional instructors. If you are interested in leading a class later this summer or next year, please contact Michelle Johansen at rhein@lakesideohio.com or stop by to talk with Michelle Johansen.
