Little River Band performs classic rock

The Australian rock group, Little River Band, returns to Lakeside with their signature sound at 8:15 p.m. Saturday, June 23 in Hoover Auditorium. The rock group will perform some of their greatest hits, including “Someone Else Darling,” “Change,” “Lady,” and other songs that showcase their vocal and instrumental talents.

Founded in Melbourne, Australia in 1975, Little River Band grew to become one of the greatest vocal bands of the 1970s and 80s. Having little success performing with other rock bands, the members of Little River Band joined together to create a new, original blend of music. The group not only got discovered by the music world, but they also gained a dedicated fanbase with their American music scene, and later, their fans worldwide. Their album sales have topped 100 million copies sold, and Little River Band was the first band to have Top 10 hits for six consecutive years.

The Opioid Crisis with Sam Quinones

As a part of the Week 2 Chautauqua Lecture Series, "The Opioid Crisis," Sam Quinones, author of Dreamland: The True Tale of America’s Opiate Epidemic, will provide an in-depth discussion of the drug trafficking and the American drug epidemic, where he spent 10 years writing about the origins of the opioid crisis. Quinones is a Los Angeles-based freelance journalist and author, and was formerly a reporter with the L.A. Times, where he spent 16 years writing about immigration, guns, drug trafficking and the U.S.-Mexico border.

Quinones recounts twin stories of drug marketing in the 21st century. A pharmaceutical corporation flogs its legal new opiate prescriptions, and a shadowy but deadly new street drug is born in the U.S. labs. As the 2018 Chautauqua season begins at Lakeside, construction on the dedicated pickleball courts continues. Court for under-18s four of the court surfaces was poured on June 13. Preparations are underway to pour the concrete for the remaining four courts. The concrete will likely be poured in early July, depending on the weather and other steps in the construction process. Construction on the project began in December 2017. Pickleball is a fun and fast-growing winter and stormy spring that Lakeside experienced this year, the anticipated completion time has been pushed back. Lakeside now expects the growth in the sport last summer continued to grow and the number of adults, teens and children who now increased.

To meet the growing demand, additional asphalt courts were poured in Perry Park and the Williams Tennis Courts this past winter. A formal pickleball program was implemented, including round robin play, weekly classes and organized tournaments. These programs used the two asphalt tennis courts at the Williams Tennis Campus.

The growth in the sport last summer continued to grow and the number of adults, teens and children who now increased.

Bi-weekly Farmers' Market produces excitement among community

In a continued effort to promote health and wellness, Lakeside hosts a bi-weekly Farmers' Market from 9 a.m.-12 p.m. every Tuesday and Thursday until Labor Day weekend. You can check the market on the Walnut Avenue (between Second and Third Streets) and along Third Street in front of Hoover Auditorium. Farmers sell fresh and organic produce, honey, herbs, spices, coffee beans, loose leaf packaged teas, maple syrup, seasonal fresh, homestead jams, artisan breads, gluten-free bakes, raw energy food, fresh cut flowers and homemade baked goods. These items are grown or baked within a 50-mile radius of Lakeside.

This summer’s Farmers’ Market has 15 vendors, including Bergman Orchards, Easy as Pie, Elk Creek Honey Farm, Farmers Wife Bread, Fresh 2U Coffee, Heywood Gardens, Miss Kiss, Skye’s Market, Quinns Farm, Rachel’s Veggies, Thompson Farms, Sonny Boys, Sweet & Savory, Tyler’s Farms and The Dugs Boys. Items sold are grown or baked within a 50-mile radius. This produces the opportunity for participants to support local and regional produce. The Farmers' Market will feature an “Ask a Gardener” booth where Lakeside homeowners are asked to contribute to the growth of the local economy. Items sold are regionally-produced goods and contribute to the growth of the local economy.

Four sisters make annual trip to Lakeside

Every year, Barbara Carder and her three sisters, all from the Central Ohio area, visit Lakeside. They look forward to their annual pilgrimage with anticipation and excitement as they prepare for a weekend of companionship, rest and great food.

Each year, the women enjoy staying at Green Gables, home of the Lakeside Women’s Club. “Lois Weller (host) is just a gem, always so helpful and nice to everyone,” said Carder. “I think she has a fantastic job here at Lakeside.”

The sisters agree that Green Gables is a wonderful place to stay because of its location near the water and the business district.

All four enjoy the rituals they have established over the years. On the way to Lakeside, they stop for an outdoor lunch at Mom and Bill’s. “But once they’re in Lakeside, they usually don’t leave the gates,” said Carder. “We are all love the donuts and coffee at The Patis,” said Thompson. “And we love going to The Hotel Lakeside at night to treat our ears, our nose, our fingers, our throat, our chest from the band at Hoover Auditorium.”

Four sisters enjoy shopping at Marilyn’s, “All four sisters enjoy shopping at Marilyn’s, Ohio’s Most Beautiful Mile, because of its location near the water and the business district. “We come prepared for some lively card games in the upstairs common room at the Green Gables too,” said Morrison. “And, of course, we all love the entertainment here at Lakeside.”

The sisters have particularly been touched by seeing Michael W. Smith and John Tesh in recent years. And, in 2014, Carder was charmed by Brydon Brett (of The Bretts Family) who, as a part of their routine, sang to her out and sang to her.

All four sisters enjoy shopping at Marilyn’s, walking O’To’s Mkt Beautiful Mile, riding in a golf cart and just relaxing. The rocking chairs at the Hotel Lakeside call their names at least once or twice during the weekend, as well as the porch furniture at the Green Gables.

2018 Garden Tour nominations

The Lakeside in Bloom! Beautification Awards Program honors those who have worked to promote the overall aesthetic appearance of the Lakeside grounds. Guests and residents are invited to experience the award-winning landscapes of this program on a self-guided Garden Tour.

The 13th Annual Garden Tour will take place from 9 a.m. - 4 p.m. Wednesday, July 11 at the various winning gardens across the Lakeside grounds.

This year’s awards program will recognize two award classes: Public Gardens (maintained by a group of volunteers or public appreciation) and Residential Gardens (any home, camper, rental property or cottage maintained by a group of volunteers for public appreciation) and Residential Gardens (any home, camper, rental property or cottage maintained by a group of volunteers for public appreciation) and Residential Gardens (any home, camper, rental property or cottage maintained by a group of volunteers for public appreciation).

Those entering either category may want to consider some of the following ideas to share your beautiful garden or nominate a deserving neighbor.

Download a nomination form at www.lakesideohio.com/gardentour, or pick one up at the Administration Office by 4 p.m. Tuesday, June 26. For more information, contact Mary Ann Hirsch at (419) 798-4461, ext. 248.

During this annual event, the Rev. Irwin Jennings will stand at the end of the dock and bless each boat and crew as they pass. “Steering and clearing,” boaters will head out into open waters to watch the sunset while Chip Richter provides music.

Before the event, all are invited to Sloopy’s for dinner.

Lakeside is a special place where I get to spend the summer. It awakens the five senses. I hear the waves crashing against the rocks, shuffleboard discs sliding down the court, and boat docks beeping as they back up. I see colorful sailboats zipping across Lake Erie, fireworks bursting through the night sky, and paint splattered on easels at the Rhein Center for the Arts. I smell fragrant flowers growing in the gardens, skunks roving the streets at night, and the mouth-watering smell of Sloopy’s pizza. I taste delicious, cold Whistle Stop ice cream, scrumptious rainbow sprinkles on patio donuts, and tasty candy from Marilyn’s.

I feel sticky ice cream dripping down the cone into my hand, the smooth swings of mayflies as I pick them up and throw them at my cousins, and the beat of the violin in my chest from the band at Hoover Auditorium.

Lakeside is my favorite place in the summer to treat my eyes, my ears, my nose, my fingers, and my taste buds! There is no place like Lakeside.
New in 2018: Lakeside introduces gift cards & barcodes

As a way to accommodate the expectations of our guests, Lakeside is planning to gradually phase out its beloved Bookstore, shift to using Gift Cards as a way to purchase certain items, and introduce barcodes.

This year, Season Chaautauqua Pass holders still will be able to purchase Coupon Books. As always, each coupon can be exchanged for one Daily Chaautauqua Pass (regular or reduced rates). Seven coupons may be exchanged for a Weekly Chaautauqua Pass.

For this first year of using Gift Cards, they may only be used to pay for admission into Lakeside. They may be redeemed for Daily, Weekly or Partial Day Chaautauqua Passes, or they may be used toward payment of Season Passes.

In the future, Lakeside will begin to expand the usage of Gift Cards so that they may also be used to pay for goods at Artist-N-Cahoots, movie tickets at Orchestra Hall, mini-golf fees, waterfront activities and other Lakeside-operated services.

Gift Cards are available to purchase in values of any amount. They are available for purchase at the Hoover Ticket Office or in the Administration Office. For more information about purchasing and using the Gift Cards, contact Tyler Wilkie at (419) 798-4461, ext. 240.

To help with the tracking and evaluation of our Chaautauqua program, Lakeside is also exploring the option of using barcodes on Chaautauqua Passes to track attendance at the gates, Hoover Auditorium, the Grindley Aquatic & Wellness Campus and other Chautauqua programs. For this year, the summer of 2018, guests will begin to see barcodes on their Daily and Season Chaautauqua Passes. However, these barcodes will have no immediate effect on our guests. Passes will still need to be shown upon entering the gates, Hoover Auditorium and the Grindley Aquatic & Wellness Campus, but the barcodes will not be scanned this year. Lakeside will be internally testing them this year with the plan of implementing the barcode system in 2019.

The purpose of testing the barcodes this year is so that Lakeside has a better idea of which features can be used for the next season. For example, there are possibilities of offering convenience features to frequent and seasonal guests, such as mobile tickets.

Lakeside thanks all of our residents and guests for their patience and cooperation as we take steps to better serve and meet our guests’ expectations moving forward.

Historic Preservation & Design Review Board

The Historic Preservation and Design Review Board (HP&DRB) is made up of five Lakeside Volunteers. We work with property owners to make sure that exterior changes preserve the feel, character and architecture of Lakeside; and at the same time assist them in their making 19th and 20th century cottages fit the needs of 21st century living. This must be accomplished within Lakeside regulations, and density zoning and building standards. Regulations are constantly evolving to keep Lakeside vibrant and a better community for all. A recent change limits the noise level of air-conditioning units and generators. Another helps preserve green space and assists storm water management by restricting the amount of hard impervious surface installed on lots. One particularly helpful regulation for HP&DRB is a new requirement of strata/escrow drawings for all new construction and additions. These drawings, which show the stage building and neighboring cottages, assist the board in visualizing the impact of a new structure. Regulation changes can make the application process challenging for the owner and board alike. Yet, each new regulation is a step toward a better Lakeside community. The HP&DRB members are working to streamline and make the application process more clear. We are always available to assist and guide property owners in the common goal of maintaining and improving our historic neighborhood. An up-to-date listing of the regulations can be found at www.lakesideo-hio.com/community.

Rhein Center instructor gives back with Abandoned Art

Bev Beatty
Instructor, Rhein Center

For the past decade, I have been privileged to teach art classes at the Rhein Center. I will be in Lakeside again to teach classes during Weeks 1, 2, 5 and 6. My goal is to give something back to Lakeside by visiting here and teaching art classes. It is my hope that the teen center will continue to thrive in the coming weeks.

The idea might catch on.

I am excited to work with the group that I’ll eventually be teaching, she said. “It’s important that I learn to effectively interact with the teens and learn how to earn their respect while also being friendly.”

Naomi Hutchison, of Canton, is working towards a degree in youth ministry at Indiana Wesleyan University. She has also excited to use this summer as a learning opportunity for a future career.

“It’s so vital that I learn how to plan and work with groups of teenagers,” said Hutchison. “Aside from merely meeting new students and learning about their lives, I’m hoping for a lot of possibilities like that this summer.”

Both McConnell and Hutchison are familiar with Lakeside, as they have both spent many summers here. McConnell has been coming here since she was 12 years old; her father is a Methodist pastor and they enjoy coming here for the summers here. McConnell has been coming here since she was born to visit with close relatives. McConnell and Hutchison have both spent many summers here.

There are only three things to keep in mind:
1. Please do not litter the plastic bag
2. If you find the art and do not want it, please leave it for someone else to find.
3. I will not leave the art in stores, so don’t bug my neighbors about it.

Also, Rhein Center staff will not know what or where it is either. I don’t like “finding the frog in the flowerpot.”

Keep your eyes open for a plastic bag that you just happen upon.

What is the #1 thing on your bucket list?

Q&A with the staff

Molly: I really want to go skydiving. I like thrills and I’m very spontaneous and so I do jump out of an airplane.

Molly: Take an RV trip across the country and see so many national parks. I’d love to do this for a honeymoon, but I’ll have to find a husband who will tell me that with me.

Blessing of the ground

In keeping with our ancient tradition, we bless the ground with ashes.

Learning to pray religiously

The labyrinth is a sacred space, where, by definition, is where two worlds touch the infinite. Psyche and spirit, into one rather than the destination, about being than the journey, resulting in physical and emotional healing, thus welcoming all who follow. Our walk will lead us to the center. Walking the labyrinth is about more than prayer, offering a setting combined with the spirit of community and fellowship.

With the help of many volunteers, Lakeside Chaplain, Religious Life Director, and the Richter and Wilkie family, we hope and pray that the newly expanded labyrinth has become a great success. At 5:30 p.m. on Wednesdays until Aug. 22 (except July 4), all are welcome to explore the labyrinth.

In keeping with our ancient tradition, we bless the ground with ashes.

The suggested donation is $4 per person, and children age 7-12 are free.

For those who wish to attend a worship service, a complimentary Church Pass available 8:30-9:15 a.m. Monday-Thursday; valid until 1:30 p.m. A complimentary Faith for Living Hour Pass available 8-9 a.m., Tuesday, Pavilion East Deck.

André Thornton to speak at Lakeside's second Prayer Breakfast

Alex Welzer
Director of Marketing

Lakeside welcomes André Thornton, former Cleveland Indians first baseman, for a special event highlighting his faith journey. He will serve as the keynote speaker for Lakeside’s 2nd Annual Prayer Breakfast at 8 a.m. Friday, Aug. 3 in Wesley Lobby.

In addition to Thornton’s story, the Prayer Breakfast will also include a testimony from Abbey Allison, the girls’ basketball coach at North Canton Hoover High School, who leads her team to championships despite having multiple sclerosis.

In his hometown of Phoenixville, Pa., Thornton was a stand-out athlete. A week before his 18th birthday, he was signed as an amateur free agent for the Philadelphia Phils in 1967. During his debut year with the Cleveland Indians in 1977, he hit 28 home runs. His career high came a year later with 33 home runs.

His story is compelling and inspiring for Lakeside’s second Prayer Breakfast, as he encourages them to share stories of different understandings of faith. We Choir sings at 10:30 a.m., while the Chautauqua Hoover Community Worship Services bring their message to our Sunday preachers from around the world to explore the works of C.S. Lewis with Greg Linville.

We invite you to experience a Narnian summer on the shores of Lake Erie, courtesy of Lakeside’s Religious Life Department.

In the literary tradition of Chesterton, we encourage you to discover C.S. Lewis’ most popular books and then join us for a workshop session on each book. These sessions will be a combination of lectures and group discussions. They will provide background on both the author and the individual book being featured.

The sessions will be led by Greg Linville, PhD, who has done both literary and field research. He has interviewed individuals who are close to Lewis and has explored the sites that Lewis frequented, including the famous Eagle & Child Pub of Inklings Lore, Headington Quarry Church, and ‘The Thyme’ that Lewis frequented. He will provide background on both the author and the individual book being featured.

By fusing together the sounds of the banjo, fiddle, guitar and mandolin, We Banjo 3 have created their signature sound of "Celtgrass," which could be described as the collision between traditional Irish music and authentic American roots music. The band's rousing reedy, bluegrass-inspired fiddling and rhythm guitar, in particular, have placed them at the forefront of an American roots music renaissance and earned them a solid reputation as one of the music world's most celebrated ensembles. The Opioid Crisis

10:30 a.m., Monday: Dreamland: Our National Opiate Addiction Epidemic & How We Got Here (Part I) with Sam Quinones (Hoover Auditorium)

Across the U.S. thousands of rural towns and suburbs have been decimated by the opioid epidemic. How did it happen? Award-winning journalist Sam Quinones weaves together riveting tales of capitalism run amok whose unintended consequences serve the wealthy and the inept. It all began two decades ago in Portage, Ohio when a U.S. government agency—to curb the supply of prescription drugs more freely than any other in the world—decided to only prosecute drug traffickers, doctors, police, doctors, addicts, survivors, and families touched by the epidemic. Sam Quinones is a Los Angeles-based freelance journalist and author. He was a reporter with the L.A. Times, where he worked for 10 years. Quinones is an experimental reporter on immigration, gangs, drug trafficking, and the border. He nears the end of his book: The Lynd Mob, the Papal Brief, the Chalice and the Bronco: A Gun and Delilah's Dream. True Tales of Mexican Mob Bosses.

In this afternoon lecture, Sam Quinones continues his tale of the Opioid Crisis and offers insight into how it has and can be stopped to create the crisis.

In August 2001, Craig and Kathy Mockler visited Lakeside for the first time. They had made what would become a life-long commitment to be a day trip to visit Kathy’s sister. However, just a single week after returning to Lakeside, they contacted a realtor and bought a cottage for themselves.

Seventeen years later, the Mocklers are proud Lakesiders and generous supporters of the Lakeside Endowment, which is critical for Lakeside’s future.

“...We’re going to pass from this life and hopefully go on to a better one,” said Craig. “And when we do, we want our kids and grandkids to keep enjoying it here, to keep getting better perspectives on life. That’s why we give to Lake-

The Mocklers appreciate many features of the Chautauqua community. From the scenic views and quiet atmosphere, to the Potomac donuts and educational lectures, Craig and Kathy are quick to point out all of Lakeside’s wonders.

Their favorite is the Gazebo, Steele Memorial Bandstand & Well-ness Campus. The Mocklers believe that recent addtions such as the new pool are not only meeting critical needs, but also increasing revenue to, and importance for, Lakeside.

“Taking our grandchildren to the pool is becoming our new favorite tradition,” said Craig. “The amount of money that was raised so quickly is a testament to how much people want to help. And how much families love Lakeside. People can still use the lake, but the pool is definitely a game changer.”

The Mocklers also optimisic that Lakeside has strategically approached the Master Plan.

“...I’ve spent a long time in business, and I know that you can’t just stumble along and hope for the best,” said Craig. “Lakeside does a great job of balancing the programming with the business aspect. Because of this, we have a plan that’s focused on the understandings of the pool.

Join the Mocklers in engaging with the future of Lakeside. To support the Lakeside Endowment and ensure a vibrant Lakeside for future generations, contact advancement@lakesideohio.com.

We’re grateful to have had more than 2,000 active participants, who have voiced their opinions at workshops, in surveys, and on social media.

Strong themes emerged from the process. Overall, Lakesiders support change and growth with careful planning. The community wants to plan for the future, not only by relying on forward thinking strategy, but also by diligently preserving the unique character of this historic place and dedication to the four Chautauqua pillars.

The collected ideas were combined with the observations from the feasibility study and work to create five focus areas to guide the future of Lakeside over the next 15-20 years. Those five areas are: South Lakeside & Cultural Arts Campus, Chautauqua Corridor, Recreation & Wellness Campus, Downtown, and the Lakeside Master Plan.

Since joining the board, Howard and Joann have been active members of the Directors Club, and through a thoughtful planned gift, are members of the Founders Society. With these investments, the Strauchs have built a lasting legacy at Lakeside that will inspire and stimulate future generations of Lakesiders.

Women on Water sailing classes
Women on Water (WOW) will once again offer sailing classes for women age 50 & older.

Beginner sessions (Level I) will take place Monday, June 25-26, Friday, June 29, and a formal introduction (Level II) will take place Monday, July 9-10. All classes will be held from 9:30 a.m.-12 p.m. at the Lakeside Sailing Center. Following the class sessions, independent practice under the watchful eye of the instructor will take place, about 20 minutes per student.

The goal of Level I is to give the sailor confidence through understanding the basic steering principles of coming about and jibing, knot tying and following a course on a Laser dinghy (Snailboat). At the beg of Level I, there will be basic swimming and water-treading tests, along with life jacket exercises. The goal of Level II is to obtain experience and confidence on a very sea worthy slop (18’ Typhoon) in open water and to do so with full command of the sailboat. To take the Level II class, students should already have the basic skills learned from Level I either through taking the Level I class or through companion sailing experience. The cost for either season is $95, which includes instruction for five days and a sailing instruction workbook.

At times, there were dozens of people waiting to play on the four pickleball courts, which were already filled with players. This demonstrated the need for dedicated pickleball courts, and it was identified as a preliminary concept for the Master Plan.

Lakeside pickleball lovers presented the idea of building pickleball courts near the Williams Tennis Campus. Lakeside pickleball enthusiasts, began to raise funds with the assistance of the Lakeside Chautauqua Foundation. At the November Board meeting, the plan was presented and the Board approved moving forward with building the dedicated pickleball courts south of the Williams Tennis Campus.

The plan for building the eight courts is to preserve green space and as many of the larger trees as possible. In general, the planting will be around the pickleball courts along the fence line to the South and along the walking path to the North. The Southeast corner of the site next to Plum Avenue also remained relatively undisturbed.
Visit www.lakesideohio.com/recupdates, our Recreation Updates page, for the weekly schedule of exercise and wellness classes, as well as any other recreational activity updates.

From 7-11 a.m., Drackett Hall (at the Wellness Center) will be used for exercise and wellness classes. Select classes will also be held in the swimming pool, the Upper Room, the Pavilion Deck and the Hotel Lakeside. Group activities include yoga, tai chi, reflexology, swimming lessons, water aerobics and more. The schedule will vary each week with instructor availability. Visit www.lakesideohio.com/recupdates.
