Celebrating 20 years of the Rhein Center

The Rev. Becca A. Stevens will serve as Lakeland’s Preacher of the Week from August 4-8. This week is supported by the Rev. Dr. Neil and Shirley Doreen Edmondson.

The Rev. Becca A. Stevens will preach at the Hoover Community Worship Service at 10:30 a.m. on Monday, Aug. 5. Her sermon, “Communication,” is based on Matthew 6:24-34 and Psalm 139:1-11.

The Rev. Stevens is an author, speaker, Episcopal priest, social entrepreneur, founder and president of Thistle Farms in Nashville.

After experiencing the death of her father and subsequent child abuse when she was 5, the Rev. Stevens longed to give stewardship to sanctuary for survivors offering a loving community. In 1991, five women who had experienced trafficking, violence and addiction were welcomed home.

Twenty years later, Thistle Farms continues to welcome women with residence that provides housing, medical care, therapy and education for two years. Residents and graduates come through one of four social enterprises.

The Global Market of Thistle Farms helps employ more than 1,800 women worldwide, and the national network has more than 40 sister communities.

The Rev. Stevens has been featured in The New York Times, on ABC World News and NPR, and was named a 2016 CPNF Hero and a White House “Champion of Change.” She appeared in the PBS documentary, “A Path Appears,” named Humanitarian of the Year by the Small Business Council of America and inducted into the Tennessie Women’s Hall of Fame.

Her most recent book, Love Heals, was published in September 2017. The Rev. Stevens attended the University of the South and Vanderbilt Divinity School. She has been conferred three honorary doctorates.

The Rev. Stevens lives in Nashville with her husband, Marcus Hummon, and their three sons. Hummon is a Grammy-winning musician that will perform on the Hoover Auditorium stage at 8:15 p.m. Monday, Aug. 5.

During her week at Lakeside, the Rev. Stevens will preach at 9 a.m. Monday through Friday in Lakeside’s Hotel Lakeside lawn or Orchestra Hall. At 7:15 p.m. Tuesday, Aug. 6, she will lead Vespers by the Lake, held on the Pavilion East Deck.

LSO Youth Concert: Musicämpics

2 p.m., Hoover Auditorium

Thursday, Aug. 8

Druss up in your favorite team’s apparel and listen to the Lakeside Symphony Orchestra in a special concert celebrating the world of music and sports.

Learn about sports and music that are closely related through teamwork, practice and dedication. Watch the musicians as they demonstrate their athletic abilities along with their coach, Music Director & Conductor Daniel Mayer, leading a concept of fun music with various sports and touchdowns.

Musical repertoire presented in this concert features Franki’s Entry of the Gladhadores, Bach’s Fantasia and Fugue in c minor, Amadil’s Boyger’s Dream, Torke’s Psalm 139, Smetana’s The Bartered Bride and John Williams’ Olympic Fanfare.

Following the concert, all are invited to join the musicians in the lobby to create a take-home instrument.

Special thanks to Judy Ooffice and the Fort Lauderdale Symphony Orchestra Program for partnering with the LSO’s Youth Concert activities and programs.

Volunteer Recognition Picnic

7 p.m., Hoover Auditorium

Thursday, Aug. 8

In honor of friends and family coming together to honor the memory of Kirk Rhei in funding the startup of a large opera studio arts center in the Epworth Lodge building, located on the corner of Walnut Avenue and Sixth Street.

In the years since, the C. Kirk Rhein, Jr. Center for the Living Arts welcomes more than 10,000 students every summer season.

With such a wide variety of class offerings, students of any age can experience fine arts, practical arts and creative crafts.

The full spectrum of arts are represented with an ever-changing weekly lineup of classes, including 2-D arts, ceramic arts, fiber arts, glass arts, all kinds of crafts, literature, music, theater, wood-working and so much more.

The Center, it is affluent knowledge, gathered more than 140 instructors each season to share their time and expertise with Lakesiders in a community that fosters friendships, new creative passions and continued self-expression.

At 7 p.m. Thursday, Aug. 8, Lakeside will honor the 20th Anniversary of the Rhein Center and the 100th Anniversary of Epworth Lodge in a ceremony at the Rhein Center.

Join us for a celebration of history, story and refreshments.
Lakeside volunteers are essential to the quality of the Chautauqua experience. Lakeside appreciates the time, talent and treasure each individual gives to make a significant impact on the community.

To view a Lakeside, entering a concert is a common way to spend a week, month or even all summer. Many Lakesiders love the homework it involves for longer stays, along with the ability to cook meals and spend time with the whole family.

15.) Mudleys don’t like those crunchy little flies buzz and mass onto our slice of the peninsula and stick themselves just about anywhere. They’re easy to spot, but not to worry. They’re busy, but not harmful. Use this as an actual indication that the lake is not too shallow to contain the healthier lake. And, in the app. To view the most comprehensive and up-to-date schedule of events, download Lakeside’s free app from the app store or on iOS and Android. End of Summer Celebration, Sept. 1

This summer marks the first of Daniel Meyer's tenure as Music Director & Conductor of the LSO. A native of Cleveland and current resident of Pittsburgh, Meyer has reintegrated orchestras with his innovative programs, engaging presence and keen musical intellect.

As Music Director of the Erie Philharmonic, Meyer has built the ensemble into one of the finest and most vibrant orchestras of its kind.

He was recently named Artistic Director of Cleveland's Blue/Rose Chamber Orchestra, and also serves as Artistic Director for the Northwest Ohio Symphony Orchestra and is Director of Orchestral Activities at Duquesne University.

Recent guest appearances include the Detroit Symphony, Rochester Philharmonic, Cincinnati Chamber Orchestra, Württembergisches Philharmonie, Staatstheater Darmstadt and the Nuremberg Symphony in Germany.

As his highly-acclaimed tenure as Music Director of the Asheville Symphony, Meyer created the Asheville Amadeus Festival featuring pianist Emanuel Ax and violinist Midori.

He has led the symphony orchestras of Fort Worth, San Antonio, Syracuse, Tallahassee, Youngstown, Lewiston, Portland, Santa Barbara, Lansing and Baltimore.

Upon the invitation of Marias Janows, Meyer was named Resident Conductor of the Pennsylvania Philharmonic and Music Director of the Pittsburgh Youth Symphony, where he served until 2009.

As Music Director of the Pittsburgh Youth Symphony, Meyer led the symphony on their first ever tour to China and its international tour to Vienna, Prague, Leipzig and Budapest.

He studied conducting at the Hochschule für Musik in Vienna as a Rotary Ambassodorial Scholar and is a graduate of Denison University and the University of Cincinnati College-Conservatory of Music.

At Boston University, Meyer received the Orchestral Conducting Honors Award and was awarded the prestigious Aspen Conducting Prize from David Zinman. He received an honorary doctorate last year from Edinboro University.

Have you ever wondered how much money solar energy can save you, or how much money it can save? May 1-2 per project. In the case of inclement weather, the event is cancelled. Coordinated by the Rhein Center.

Military Appreciation Day, Aug. 11

To honor the men and women who have served or are currently serving in the U.S. Military, Lakeside Chautauqua will celebrate Military Appreciation Day on Sunday, Aug. 11.

Those who are honorably discharged, retired from, or are currently serving in any branch of the military, will be granted a free one-day Chautauqua Pass and Auto Pass to Lakeside upon presenting credentials and/or military ID at the gates.

Retired military will also receive a free one-day Chautauqua Pass for one guest, while active military will receive free one-day Daily Chautauqua Passes for their immediate family. Passes are valid from 7 a.m. to 6 p.m. and do not include an overnight visit.

The passes allow access to Chautauqua programming, including worship services, swimming at the Grindley Aquatic & Wellness Campus pool, Concerts in the Park with Moment’s Notice at 3:30 p.m. and 6 p.m. and much more.

Lakeside homeowners are asked to hang American flags at their residences on this day to show appreciation for all branches of the U.S. Military.

Chautauqua Literary & Scientific Circle Events

DOLLY ANDLER, LITERARY & SCIENTIFIC CIRCLE MEMBER

Did you know that the Chautauqua Literary & Scientific Circle (CLSC) is the oldest book club in the U.S.? It was started in 1878 at New York’s Chautauqua Institute.

Every year, the New York Chapter provides a new reading list. From that list, the Chautauqua Circle selects two chapters to read and discuss. Members are open to anyone interested in reading, learning and discussing literature.

The final discussion of the summer is scheduled for 3:30 p.m. Thursday, Aug. 15 in the Fountain Inn Agler Room.

The book for the third round table discussion is available at amazon.com, Barnes & Noble and The Fine Print bookstore.

Presidential Front Porch Gathering

Lakeside Chautauqua President/CEO Kevin Sibbring will give an overview of the past year and highlight what’s happening next in the community. During the presentation, attendees can discuss and ask questions.

Join us from 10-11 a.m. Thursday, Aug. 15 in a private home. The location will be provided upon receiving your RSVP. RSVP to communications@lakesideohio.com or (419) 798-4461, ext. 246.

Lakeside hosts Generosity & Stewardship Conference

Lakeside Chautauqua will host its 3rd Annual Generosity & Stewardship Conference.

The conference invites clergy and laity involved in stewardship and finance, development, foundation leadership and consultancy to participate in a unique learning experience on the shores of Lake Erie.

The event includes keynote speakers, breakout sessions, social mixers and much more.

This year’s conference is sold out. However, looking ahead for next year, please save the date for the 2020 conference from Aug. 2-5 in Lakeside. For more information, visit lakesideohio.com/generosity.

“A Day at Lakeside” Oral Histories

Exploration with Dakota Harkins 1:30 p.m., Chautauqua Hall

What does a story become a history? The stories that individuals share about their past are called oral histories, and they’re the first step in research and data preservation.

Find out more about the process of capturing oral histories, the reasons they’re vital for historical organizations and how to start recording some of your own.

This program will include clips from oral histories by Lakesiders dating to the mid-20th century. Hear about everything from a typical Lakeside day in 1912 to the great community programs spearheaded by Lakesider Eleanor Dar, all in the participants’ own words.

Lakeside Hills, in the Management of Operations for the Lakeside Heritage Society. She earned her master’s degree in public history and museum studies at Appalachian State University and completed a bachelor’s degree in history and anthropology at the University of Toledo. Jenkins was previously an intern in the Lakeside Leadership Academy and this is her third summer at the Lakeside Heritage Society.

LSO Concert in memoriam
8:15 p.m., Hoover Auditorium
This Lakeside Symphony Orchestra (LSO) concert is in memoriam of Robert L. Cramer, LSO Music Director & Conductor for 19 years and who passed away on September 11, 2018.

In honor of Cramer’s spiritual devotion to Lakeside’s arts pillar, the LSO has produced a cherished tradition for more than five decades. The symphony pays tribute with the theme “Friends in Music.” Cramer was instrumental in starting the Arts Endowment at Lakeside and was a champion of Lakeside’s mission to nurture the mind and spirit through artistic endeavors. In his 47 years with the LSO, Cramer did just that by presenting an annual memorial program, as well as opera and pops featuring world-class dancers, singers and internationally-recognized artists.

In honor of Cramer’s spirit and with his approval, the LSO will celebrate Cramer’s life and legacy by performing his favorite works. The program includes world-renowned, Avanti, a prelude by Mozart, and Fantaschina, a prelude by Gluck. The program concludes with the LSO Symphony Orchestra concerts. Those talks provide listeners more to fully understand and enjoy the evening’s symphony concert. Talks are held August 6, 11, 13 and 16.

Christine Smith Dorey, Ph.D., is a lecturer and musician at Baldwin Wallace University (BWU). She holds degrees in musicology and music education from Baldwin Wallace University, as well as a Doctor of Musical Arts from the University of Illinois. She has been a conductor and music director of numerous ensembles throughout the U.S. and Europe. Her performances have been seen in the United States, Europe and Asia, and her recordings are available to answer gardening questions where Lakeside Chautauqua’s Master Gardener lies.

Lakeside’s Family Entertainment Series, held on select Wednesdays throughout the summer, is geared especially toward families.
Steve Brogan is one of those rare entertainers who can captivate any audience with his incredibly unique talent. He mixes stand-up comedy, puppetry, audience participation, improvisation and astounding voice manipulations for the benefit of any and all comedy-seeking crowds.

Brogan began learning his craft of ventriloquism at age 7. He performed as a way of working through college before becoming the CEO of Steve Brogan & Company, Inc.
His experience ranges from opening for celebrities, appearing on national television shows such as “Good Morning America” and the “Today Show” to corporate events and cruise ship theaters.

The Quest for a Global Ethic
with Hugh Burtner
10:30 a.m., Orchestra Hall
The 1948 Universal Declaration of Human Rights has long been recognized as a singular modern statement affirming what’s commonly called a global ethic. The Declaration itself acknowledges the importance of religious traditions. In this lecture, more recent efforts to formulate such a global ethic in ways that are responsive to the situations faced in this generation will be explored.
Since the Declaration, both the United Nations and the Parliament of World Religions have produced noteworthy texts that deserve careful attention.
In addition, there’s hope that in our increasingly ecumenical world, our faith traditions will help to understand the moral values shared.

10:30 p.m., Chautauqua Hall
“There Is Only Us” Dialogue was created by John Noltner, founder of “A Peace of My Mind” multimedia arts project. Noltner visited Lakeside Chautauqua with his project in 2017. This video and group discussion continues the conversation on the topics of empathy, civility and inclusion and will be led by a member of the Lakeside Chautauqua Education Department. Sessions will be held at 1:30 p.m. Aug. 7, 19 and 22, and each session will focus on a different aspect of the video.

Keep the Oaklanders happy with your tickets for the biggest event of the year! Cedar Point is a 365-day fun park that offers something for everyone. From thrilling roller coasters to classic midway games, Cedar Point has it all.

Cedar Point is located in Sandusky, Ohio, and is easily accessible from anywhere in the Midwest. With over 200 rides and attractions, there is something for everyone to enjoy.

Cedar Point is open from May 18 to Labor Day and then again from Labor Day to September 2. Admission prices vary depending on the date of your visit.

The Chautauqua Choir has been a part of the Chautauqua Institution’s summer season for many years, providing a musical enrichment to the community. The choir practices in the main auditorium, and members are selected through an open audition process.

The choir is under the direction of Michael Power, who has been associated with the choir for over 20 years.

In addition to performing at the final memorial mass of the season, the Chautauqua Choir will also perform at several other events throughout the summer, including concerts, lectures, and religious services.

The choir is open to all members of the community, regardless of age or experience. Anyone interested in joining the choir is encouraged to audition.

Chautauqua Choir Rehearsals
6:30-7 p.m., Chautauqua Hall

The Chautauqua Choir is open to all members of the community, regardless of age or experience. Anyone interested in joining the choir is encouraged to attend rehearsals and consider participating in the final memorial mass of the season.

LSO Pops Concert
“Simply Swingin’ with Sinatra & Friends” featuring Steve Lippia
8:15 p.m., Hoover Auditorium
This special pops performance by the LSO features crooner Steve Lippia in “Simply Swingin’ with Sinatra & Friends.”

Lippia took the pops world by storm when he performed his original show “Simply Sinatra” to sold-out crowds across North America. He’s become one of the most prominent in-demand vocalists and has quickly established a place among the few interpreters of standards and traditional pop music in the nation.

“Simply Swingin’ with Sinatra & Friends” will treat audiences to timeless hits such as “Beyond The Sea,” “It Had To Be You,” “New York, New York,” and more.

In addition to the evening concert, join

Symphony Pre-Concert Talk
Exploring the Music of Sinatra with Christine Smith Dorey
3:30 p.m., Chautauqua Hall
This season, Lakeside Chautauqua is partnering with the Conservatory of Music of Baldwin Wallace University (BWSU) to provide lectures prior to select Lakeside Symphony Orchestra concerts. These talks prepare listeners to more fully understand and enjoy the evening’s symphony concert. Talks are held August 6, 9, 13, and 16.

Christine Smith Dorey, PhD, is a lecturer of music history and literature at BWSU. She received degrees in musicology (PhD, University of Kentucky), vocal performance (M.M., University of Arizona and B.M., Ohio State University) and music education (B.M.Ed., Ohio State University) and is a well-known teacher and administrator at institutions of higher education throughout the U.S. Her primary research areas are late-19th and early-20th century operas, world music, American popular music and musical theatre, and the intersections of music and the brain. A generalist who conducts numerous presentations on music, she believes that music is essential to being human.

Patrons will have the opportunity to purchase tickets to upcoming events at the Symphony Pre-Concert Talk, or to learn more about upcoming programs at Lakeside Chautauqua when the Symphony Pre-Concert Talks are held August 6, 9, 13 and 16.

Stay-up-to-date on the Rhein Center’s registration processes

We’ve eroded some of the changes happening this summer as the Rhein Center enters its 16th season of offering art classes to Lakesiders. Because the Rhein Center will no longer be holding an Open House on Sunday afternoons, we want to keep you informed of the details surrounding the two most important changes: 1.) Where in the church ministry office “and generally taught on a Wednesday at 10 a.m.” will be led by the Rev. Ed Peterson, Camp Director and Dean of the AGON Institute of Spiritual Development. He’s a Licensed Christian Pastor, and spiritual director. The seminars will be led by the Rev. John Smith, John 2:16-17, and Smith, John 2, etc. (For example: Smith, John 1; Smith, John 2, etc.)

Registration will begin as usual at 10 a.m. Thursday for the following week’s classes. Remember to choose the quantity and type of items needed, simply visit our site and make your order. You’ll find a bag of fresh linens at your doorstep when you arrive, and when vacation is over, simply bundle your Lakeside Linen Supplies back into the bag and leave it outside the door for pickup. No need to launder! Simply and easy.

Another Rhein Center program, Art in the Park, will move to Saturdays from 3-7 p.m. near Pavilion Circle to coincide with the Saturday Afternoon Concerts at the Pavilion West Deck. Thank you, and we hope you’ll join us in celebrating 20 years of arts education at Lakeside through the C. Kirk Rhein, Jr. Center for the Living Arts.

Rhein Center class listings & online registration: lakesideohio.com/classes

All classes are listed online and on the app (Do the Mambo). Printed listings are located in the Rhein Center, Artists-N-Cahoots, Coffee & Cream, the Farmers’ Market, Hoover Auditorium, Welcome Center, Info Center, Admin. Office, and Farmers’ Markets. Register online at lakesideohio.com/classes or stop by the Rhein Center to browse class listings and register online. You can also view class listings on the new Lakeside app, Do the Mambo, which is available for free download in the app store on iOS or Android.

A printed list of classes will also be available at any week the Rhein Center meets.

6th Annual United Methodist Pastors’ Retreat

There are several categories of clergy in The United Methodist Church. One is United Methodist Pastors. A person called to ministry becomes a licensed local pastor by attending a five-year-called Study School. The school is operated by the “national church ministry office” and generally taught at a United Methodist seminary campus.

Those who graduate are licensed to serve both local and general courses. Some become associate members of an annual conference.

Like United Methodist Elders, these are the ministers of the church who have the time away to reflect and re-charge their spiritual batteries. Lakeside Chautauqua is honored to have been a Fellowship of Associate Members of Local Pastors Retreat.

This year’s retreat will be held from Saturday, Aug. 15 through Sunday, Aug. 16. The theme is “Civil Dialogue in an Un- civil World.”

The seminars will be led by the Rev. Dr. Greg Linnville, Director of Research Development for the Association of Church Sports and Recreation Ministries and Dean of the AGON Institute of Sports Ministry. He’s a Licensed Christian Pastor in the Evangelical Church Fellowship.

This week’s Faith for Living Hour will be led by the Rev. Ed Peterson, Camp Director and Dean of the AGON Institute of Spiritual Development. He’s a Licensed Christian Pastor in the Evangelical Church Fellowship. The seminars will be led by the Rev. John Smith, John 2:16-17, and Smith, John 2, etc. (For example: Smith, John 1; Smith, John 2, etc.)
