Michael W. Smith graces Hoover

Michael W. Smith, an award-winning contemporary Christian artist, will perform his chart-topping hit in Hoover Auditorium at 8:15 p.m. Saturday, Aug. 12.

His greatest hits, “Place in This World,” “Open the Eyes of My Heart” and “Above All,” have reached the top of both the contemporary Christian charts and mainstream charts. At age 5, Smith wrote his first song and later went on to Nashville to pursue a career in music. He started playing keyboard with the group Higher Ground, and then signed his first songwriting contract with Paragon/Benson Publishing Company.

Smith made his very first album in 1983, titled “Michael W. Smith Project.” He wrote all of the music, while his wife, Debbie, wrote the lyrics.

Master Planning Presentation & Workshop update

On July 22, a Master Planning Presentation & Workshop, titled “Planning Principles & Preliminary Concepts,” was held in Hoover Auditorium. Below is a summary and draft of the ideas presented in the session, and the entire PowerPoint presentation can be found here and are also on Lakeside's Master Planning website and the community workshop.

The Lakeside community, together with staff from Lakeside and MKSK, gathered to discuss and review the findings of the Master Planning process so far.

Based out of Columbus, the urban-planning firm MKSK is working with Lakeside to research and develop a long-range Master Plan. MKSK will be the lead community-broad-based community process this two-year process through community engagement, new ideas will emerge, concepts will be tested and critical needs will be identified.

Throughout the summer, Lakeside has asked residents, guests, staff and volunteers to provide input on their vision for Lakeside. Through surveys, focus groups, the interactive Master Planning website and the community workshops, MKSK has started to identify some key priorities and themes for the future of Lakeside.

Help us plan for the future of Lakeside

In addition to the Master Plan discussions Lakeside is facilitating, we are asking the community to provide feedback on the Chautauqua programming that Lakeside offers. There will be three questionnaires to collect your input, specifically related to Lakeside’s program offerings. This Programming Assessment will help fine-tune the Master Plan as we continue to work towards a Lakeside that continues to serve everyone who loves it.

Lakeside Chautauqua is proud of the variety of the programs that it offers and the benefits of all abilities and interests each summer. The feedback you provide to us about your favorite, and not-so-favorite, programs can be considered adjustments to our offerings and prioritize which programs Lakeside Chautauqua cherishes the most. We highly encourage all community members, guests, and visitors to participate in this assessment.

Join the Lake Erie Foundation in efforts to protect our Great Lakes

The Lake Erie Foundation (LEF) is a 501(c)(3) organization dedicated to sustain and protect the waters of Lake Erie. The foundation is the result of the combining of two organizations: the Lake Erie Waterkeeper and Lake Erie Improvement Association, which advocated for Lake Erie protection and improvements for many years.

Leaders of these pioneering organizations recognized that a combined long-term sustainable effort would be more effective in protecting the entire lake.

That philosophy is to ‘sustain and maintain a healthy Lake Erie now and forever as defined by drinkable water, recreational contact and edible fish.’

Lake Erie faces many water quality impacts, some of which were thought to have been addressed many years ago and others that are entirely new challenges. Some of the major issues are nutrients/harmful algae, invasive species, water quality and water quantity.

The LEF is dedicating significant efforts toward addressing the nutrients/harmful algae bloom challenge. They have two major goals: (1) Establish an accessible, reportable Lake Erie Nutrient Reduction Plan and (2) Require that the amount of phosphorus in the soil for manure be the same as commercial fertilizer tonnage.

Your support for the LEF will allow them to:

- Be a strong voice to help reduce harmful algae in Lake Erie now and to sustain its future.
- Ensure a 40% nutrient reduction in the western and central Lake Erie basin by 2025.
- Require manure to have the same phosphorus limits as commercial fertilizer (currently almost four times as much is allowed to place on fields).
- Support technology that reduces nutrient runoff from manure, field tiles, ditches, wastewater treatment plants and failing septic systems to minimize nutrients flowing into Lake Erie.
- Work with all Lake Erie stakeholders on issues that sustain and improve Lake Erie water quality and habitat, including efforts to address Asian Carp.

In addition to supporting LEF, now is also the time to voice your concerns. Contact your legislative representatives and urge for a strong Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) budget for the Great Lakes Restoration Initiative to keep our water safe.

Visit greatlakes.2ea.org/FWGG/180 to provide your information and send a personal letter to Congress.

New to Lakeside? Lakeside is welcoming new residents to the lake, as well as new visitors who have never been here before. To get the most out of your visit, please read this booklet to familiarize yourself with the town, its history, and the features that make it special.

To the good people of Lakeside, do you recall the effort to help the children of the Hartford orphanage in the summer of 2015? Since that time, residents of this smaller and famous Lakeside, generous Lakesiders have helped feed the orphans in Haiti. I regularly travel to Haiti at my own expense to make effective purchases of food and supplies for our orphanage. Many of our generous donations. Your kind support of this effort would be much appreciated.

God Bless You,
Walter Smith

When people describe Lakeside, “quaint” and “charming” are typically at the top of the list. If you’ve noticed, even artists try to capture the charm of Lakeside by painting or photographing Lakeside’s beautiful cottage, complete with intricate gingerbread, open fretwork, and a welcoming open porch. They understand that is the feeling that most people want to remember and take away with them. After all, what’s more memorable, relaxing and inviting than green grass and colorful flowers embracing a breezy front porch?

In today’s lifestyle of “ bigger is better” it could be easy to lose the much-desired quaintness and charm that seem to draw homeowners, as well as visitors, to Lakeside. Size and scale of cottages becomes extremely important in relation to their lot size, as well as to the neighboring cottages. We can learn from past mistakes of size and scale, and instead of using them as precedents, we can avoid repeating them in the future. Lakeside will retain its value as a quaint and charming retreat. Even though change is inevitable, we can preserve Lakeside’s heritage.

Wooden Boat Rides, Sunset Cruises offered on Lake Erie

The Lakeside Wooden Boat Society offers a variety of boating events. Wooden boat rides run every Monday and Thursday until Aug. 27. Please note: this is the last week of boating season.

These 30-minute rides begin at 6 p.m. with the last ride departing at 7:30 p.m. The cost is $20 for adults and $6 for children (ages 4-12). Hour-long sunset cruises aboard Amazing Grace, a fully restored 1937 Richardson Cruiseabout, start at 8 p.m. The cost is $35 for adults and $10 for children (ages 4-12).

Two-day Quilt Workshop coming to Lakeside in September

Anyone with a passion for quilting is invited to join Sharon McConnell, a pattern designer and teacher, for a two-day quilt workshop in Lakeside. The “Classic Curved Quilts” Workshop will begin at 9 a.m. Friday, Sept. 8 and end by 5 p.m. Saturday, Sept. 9. It will focus on elements of Lakeside’s heritage. The workshop will be at 6095 West Lake Road, Lakeside OH 44050, and will include all materials. The workshop will be limited to 15 participants, so please preregister. The cost is $250. Contact Sharon McConnell at 419-798-4461, ext. 279 or conference@lakesideohio.com for more information.

The primary goal of the Lakeside Environmental Stewardship Society (LESS) is to promote the understanding, appreciation, protection and improvement of the environment of Lakeside Chautauqua. Its secondary goal is to influence the state and national legislators in their actions to protect and improve the environment.

Membership is open to anyone interested in the environment. All LESS meetings and events are open to the public.

LESS also coordinates Tree Tram Tours at 10:30 a.m. Mondays and Bird Walks at 8 a.m. Wednesdays. For details, see “Education” on page 15. Lakeside has more than 100 species of trees. On the Tree Tour Tour, learn about 30 of them. There are two tours left this summer on Monday, Aug. 14 and Monday, Aug. 28. The 1:30 p.m. tours are free, but pre-registration is required at the Lakeside Chautauqua Administration Office, located at 236 Walnut Ave. The tours are organized by LESS and the Lakeside Education Department and led by LESS volunteers Bill Dowdow and Frank O’Dell.

LESS will also hold a Hazardous Waste Collection Day on Saturday, Sept. 2.

Environmental Tip from LESS

Together we can help our world by making one change at a time. When incandescent and compact fluorescent lightbulbs (CFL) burn out, replace them with LED lights. Less electricity has to be produced to operate LEDs, resulting in lower emissions from power plants. Unlike CFLs, they contain no mercury. Because of their long life, they reduce landfill waste. It is estimated that once adopted replacement of LEDS over the next 15 years would result in reduced electricity demands from lighting by 62%, prevent 258 million metric tons of carbon emissions and eliminate the need for 133 new power plants.

“Quilting became something my mom and I did together as she taught me,” said McConnell. “I realized early on that I liked creating my own designs rather than following patterns.”

She also enjoys the entire process of making quits, from choosing colors and fabrics to trying new piecing techniques.

“The creativity in quilting makes it such a rewarding hobby, and I love teaching others from my experiences,” McConnell said.

McConnell teaches classes at Quilt Beginnings in Columbus. Visit www.colorgirlquilts.com for more information.
As we start Week 9 of the Lakeside Chautauqua season, the Lakeside Heritage Society (LHS) would like to thank all those who have contributed to our “Toys of Yesteryear” exhibit at Historic Hall Museum.

Your generous donations have allowed all generations of guests to connect with each other and reminisce about the “good old days” of childhood.

This week, LHS is adding the exhibit with another anterogerragian item: an original Highlights for Children magazine from 1948.

More than one billion Highlights for Children magazines have been printed since the first publication in 1946. Creators Caroline Clark, Myers and Garry Cleveland met while teaching illiterates in the military, where Caroline was the first female educator hired by the U.S. Army.

The pair married and began illustrious careers as pioneers in the field of elementary education, teaching parents and educators alike while at Case Western Reserve University.

The couple then spent 12 years working for Highlights. By 1966, they had founded the magazine.

The magazine was created to entertain and educate children and parents on the value of learning through play.

Dr. Paul Sukys will be the featured speaker at the luncheon, and a name will be drawn to win one of the hand knit LWC blankets. Chances on the blanket can be purchased by anyone at Green Gables through Monday, Aug. 14.

Luncheons and luncheon attendees may purchase tickets in advance. Contact Harkins about volunteer projects that last just a couple hours or longer, based on your interests.

Dr. Charles A. Craig will lead a discussion of the historic novel by Susan Vreeland, The Luncheon of Little Gotham.

A new Lakeside Heritage Society (LHS) member, Dakota Harkins, has joined the team.

Harkins has a master’s degree in teaching parents and educators in Chicago and has worked extensively to connect with each other and reminisce about the “good ole days” of childhood.

The Lakeside chapter of the Chautauqua Literary & Scientific Circle (CLSC) held its fourth graduation celebration of the 21st century on July 23. The theme for this year’s graduation was “Community.” Several members of the Lakeside CLSC read brief quotations on the meaning of community. The speakers included, Marsha Kronosky, David Blank, John Collier, Geigey Spillers and Paul Sykes.

The graduation celebration opened with a tribute to Dolly Anderson, who now holds the unique honor of being the first Lakeside chapter member of the modern era to achieve the CLSC Parnassian post-graduate level. To reach the Parnassian post-graduate level, members must verify that they have read 14 additional books from the official CLSC reading list, beyond the first 12 required for graduation and the additional 14 books required for the Guild of Seven Seals. Also honored this year were David Blank and Geigey Spillers who earned post-graduate level status as members of the Guild of Seven Seals.

Aimless Love by Billy Collins

The Lakeside Chautauqua Literary & Scientific Circle (CLSC) will hold its final Round Table of the summer at 3:30 p.m. Thursday, Aug. 17 in the Frontin Inn Aigler Room to discuss Billy Collins’ book, Aimless Love.

Aimless Love is a collection of Collins’ poetry that covers a wide range of topics, including love. Sunday walks, Paris, the moon, the golden years, Greek and Roman history, and poetry itself. The volume includes many new poems as well as some of Collins’ favorite poems from previously published books.

Unlike most sessions of the Round Table, which are usually presented by one or two members of the Lakeside CLSC, this meeting will include multiple readings of Collins’ poetry by members of the group. The Aimless Love program has been coordinated by longtime CLSC member Jared Jennings.

The Round Table was organized in this way to honor a program designed by the late Jim Kerthwaal, who indicated a desire to get as many CLSC members as possible involved in experiencing poetry in a personal way.

Membership in the CLSC is open to anyone interested in reading and discussing a variety of literary works, both fiction and nonfiction. The New York Chautauqua Institute CLSC was formed in 1878 to support reading and learning about nature, art, literature, philosophy and science. The New York chapter provides a reading list each year, from which the local membership chooses two books to read during the off-season for discussion at the round table sessions each summer.

People ask, “So, tell me Jack, where did you spend your time?”

Lesser Liston had a place at the Pine Inn.

Fishing was good back in the day, up early to fish on the dock.

On a good day, if the wind was just right, get ready for a fight.

For a new shirt, flip flops or toys from one of Marilyn’s shops.

But when the week is up and it’s time to go, they all become real sad.

I’ll dance on the dock; Sunday mornings are the best.

I remember the whistle from the lifeguards that gave the impression they wanted you to leave.

They would stand from the platform, point their finger and say, “No running, please!”

So, up to the stores to spend my money to get candy and a pop.

But it’s not so bad.

While the week in up and it’s time to go, they all become real sad.

I’ll dance on the dock; Sunday mornings are the best.

The healing of the old is unimpaired, put my mind at rest.

Hoping that you’ve planted that seed to help make it a tradition.

1:30 p.m., Monday: "Harmonies of the Homefront: Music & World War I" with Lori Vogt
If you want to know a generation of Americans, then listen to the popular music they embraced in their youth. As surely as Bob Dylan’s “Blowin’ in the Wind” captures the spirit of the 1960s, so too does the music from 1914–1918 reveal the generation of Americans that fought—both at home and abroad—for victory in the war. It truly understood the soldiers, the war volunteers and the families and friends they left behind, listen to the music that provided their soundtrack to the war. Learn how music shaped Ameri-

1:30 p.m., Tuesday: The Ohio Homefront in World War I with Andrew Hall
As battles raged across the globe during World War I, the American people did what they could to support the war effort. Ohio in particular saw a great boom in patriotic fervor towards the support of the war with citizens developing victory gardens, carefully conserving commodities like gas and coal, and enlisting in both military and volunteer positions. While unifying all Ohioans around a common cause, the Great War also brought with it intense German persecution, as well as a hunt for those citizens who did not support the war effort. Join Andrew Hall as he delves into the complexities of Ohio’s Homefront during World War I and shows just how decisive the war became for residents of the Buckeye State.

Hall completed his bachelor’s degree at Bowling Green State University and recently finished his master’s degree in history at Miami University (Ohio) where he studied U.S. participation in World War I, the Titanic, and the European psyche today.

Heritage Society Lecture
1:30 p.m., Sunday: Orchestra Hall—Lakeside’s “Picture Show” for 90 Years with Robert Rue (Chautauqua Hall)

Calling a movie theater a “picture show” was common in the early decades of the 20th century. Martha Jarmack, the retired school teacher who was the cashier when Dean Fick worked at the White House, will present highlights from the 1915-1918 era. When the U.S. entered World War I, 20 percent of the pilots were from 1915-1918. When the U.S. entered World War I, 20 percent of the pilots were from Lakeside and its connections with the Vincent Cleveland family.

Lakeside resident Polly Albrecht taught professional floral design for 25 years. She has been a floristry consultant in high-end hotels and restaurants, including the White House.

The grand opening of the Grindley Aquatic & Wellness Campus has made 2017 a memorable summer. But to one family of Lakesiders in particular, the new pool has changed a life.

Marky Beatty has been coming to Lakeside all his life, and has made a home for himself here. Zipping around Lakeside on his scooter, he greets everyone with a big, contagious smile.

"I didn't have a clear picture of how it would work," said Donithan. "I said we would if we were able to swim in it, but he would see it. But when I first saw it, it was incredible. I knew it would be great for our family."

"While the ADA-approved lift-chair and the entry step for his scooter were significant improvements, he could not have done this without the enthusiasm and encouragement of everyone who helped make the Grindley Aquatic & Wellness Campus possible. Because of your kindness and generosity, Marky and the Lakeside community will enjoy this gift for years to come.

Marky in a way that nothing else could be. And in the same way, Marky has even more to spread to the Lakesiders.

"In Arizona, where the family resides year-round, Marky lives in an Individually Designed Living Arrangement (IDLA) home, which is a small cottage with one bedroom. Kathy and Craig are the home members to assist the residents. Marky and his two roommates live semi-independently in their homes, and he even has a job there working on computers.

"While out and about at Lakeside, some of Marky's friends enjoy doing different activities, and they often hang out with the friends he has made from the youth group. But, any activity is great for Marky, as long as he is with friends. He often joins them for their worship music and generally go out for lunch.

"As they have for the past 16 years now, Kathy and Craig are looking forward to enjoying another Lakeside summer with their family. If you share Kathy and Craig's passion for the future of Lakeside and growing the Endowment, visit www.lakesideohio.com/giving or contact (419) 790-5258 or advancement@lakesideohio.com.

As of the July 22 workshop, Lakeside has received input from the Board of Directors, the Steering Committee, various key stakeholders, community organizations, web users and workshop attendees, resulting in a total of more than 2,000 ideas. Some of the top themes gathered from this input include:

- Preserve & Enhance Lakeside’s Character
- Improve the Waterfront
- Improve & Expand Facilities
- Upgrade the Guest Experience
- Simplify & Clarify Circulation

As MKSK and Lakeside work towards these identified themes, there will be a set of seven Planning Principles to guide them towards the specific tasks it will take to accomplish the common vision. The Lakeside Chautauqua Master Plan will:

1. Reflect the Four Chautauqua Pillars
2. Protect & Preserve the Character of Lakeside
3. Support Lake Erie as the Cornerstone of Lakeside
4. Consider the Future Needs of All Lakesiders
5. Help Us Prioritize
6. Be Visionary
7. Be a Starting Point

Together, these themes and principles are beginning to guide the creation of ideas for Lakeside’s Master Plan.

Please note that the ideas and possibilities listed below and in the online presentation are only ideas and concepts and not concrete plans for Lakeside. We encourage your continued feedback at www.lakesidemasterplan.com.

Entrance & Welcome Center

In order to enhance the visibility of Lakeside in the community and to those passing by on Route 163, there may be a need to improve the external, visible appeal of Lakeside. This may include a more functional and comprehensive Welcome Center, more attractive and eye-catching signage, formal fencing and landscaping on the south end of the Campground, improved parking, a new space for the Lakeside Heritage Hall Museum & Archives and a consolidated maintenance area.

Cultural Arts Campus

The old Lakeside Schoolhouse holds a great deal of potential for future programming space, and could even be considered as a future hub for a Cultural Arts Campus. With upgrades, renovations and additions to the existing structure, the Schoolhouse could provide space for art classes, exhibitions, outdoor concerts, more outdoor social space and walkways.

Education & Religious Life Campus

A fond memory for many Lakesiders old and young is attending a youth camp or ministry outing at Lakeside. To ensure that Lakeside can continue to attract youth groups, significant renovations may need to be made to the existing group housing facilities. Wisp-Mils and South Auditorium, with improvements and upgrades, could be continuous spaces for visiting groups to reside and entertain in. Additionally, thought may be given to the Rhein Center. Every summer Lakesiders of all ages flock to participate in a wide variety of art classes, and the services may have outgrown the space.

Grindley Aquatic & Wellness Campus

The grand opening of the Grindley Aquatic & Wellness campus made 2017 a milestone summer for Lakeside. While the space is new and well-used, Lakeside has considered plans for expanding both the Grindley Campus, as well as the Williams Tennis Campus. This may include new courts for pickleball and/or tennis, the reuse of surrounding buildings (maintenance, group housing, etc.) and better connectivity for pool users (circulation plan for shuttles).

Business District

Lakeside’s Business District is a key part of the “step back in time” feeling people get when they enjoy Lakeside. In the four central blocks that make up the downtown area, there is potential for additional retail and restaurant options, improved Lakeside office space and expansions or renovations to the Fountain Inn and the Hotel Lakeside. Considerations may also be taken to provide cleaner and safer circulation for vehicles, shuttles and pedestrians. This may include wider sidewalks, more organized parking or more pedestrian-only zones.

Waterfront

Lake Erie and Ohio’s Most Beautiful Mile already exist as key attractions in Lakeside. In addition to the existing dock, sailing center, beach area and walking path, MKSK sees potential in the area both aesthetically and functionally. Possibilities include enhanced use of the Pavilion, an improvement of waterfront views and accessibility, additional waterfront activities, an extended beach area and better water flow near the dock.

We thank everyone who has provided input to the Master Planning process thus far. As Lakeside and MKSK continue to develop ideas, we encourage you to stay up to date and involved by visiting www.lakesidemasterplan.com. There, you can find questionnaires and other interactive elements that will allow you to have a hand in creating a sustainable and enjoyable Lakeside for generations to come.

At the tournament in Brazil, there were 38 men and 26 women. There were players from Japan, Australia, Germany, Canada, Norway and of course Brazil and the United States. The tournament was really a different style. Out of the first round of 16 players move on and are divided into four groups of four, with each player from each of those groups going on to play for the top four spots.

In the first round, I struggled. Hirsch said. “I think I went 1-4 and we had to do a playoff shuffle (a double-elimination) because there were three of us tied with the same record, and we all had a win against each other. I won that and made it to the top 16. Then I went 1-1 in my group of four, won another tiebreaker and made it into the top four to play for the championship.”

In the top four, Hirsch won both of his matches, with the final championship match actually being a rematch with someone he had played against in the first round. German player Stefan Studtmüller.

“Luckily, I started playing better as the week went on,” Hirsch said.

Aside from the competition, Hirsch enjoyed the Brazilian sightseeing, food and culture. He was able to take in sights such as Christ the Redeemer, Sugar Loaf Mountain and Guanabara Bay.

To congratulate Michael Hirsch, Lakeside will hold a reception from 2-4 p.m. Sunday, Aug. 13 at the Lakeside boardroom.
